I don't see my comment so i'll do it again. sorry if it shows up twice. I made the lei yesterday and it turned out great! lots of compliments! but i did notice that eventually the ribbons would be "weighed" down (either by gravity or natural weight of the ribbon) and it ended up having string show near the anchor bead.

So we made a template (psst- download it here), cut it out of plywood and stained it, and then we derped around for a few months doing all sorts of house things instead of completing this project.. Finally, we decided it was time give the people what they wanted finish â€”er up. And that meant doing the hardest part: adding the metal flashing to the sides.

What is smart future? The concept of "smart" has many different perspectives. In this paper, our concept of smart is about being intelligent, proactive, purposeful, aspirational, and goal-oriented in applying innovative ideas to achieve a desired future (Smart Future Initiative, 2016). Creating a smart future is much more than just being future smart where people prepare for the possible ...
